- Museum passes are due three days after you pick them up. Check the return date specified when reserving a pass.
- The American Museum of Natural History vouchers are good for one visit and do not need to be returned to the library. Patrons may borrow up to 4 American Museum of Natural History vouchers at a time.
- Passes may not be renewed.
- A fee of $10 will be charged each day a pass is late.
- Any borrower who loses a pass is responsible for the full replacement cost of that pass. The cost of each pass varies and may be up to $500.
- The passes cannot be put in the book drop or returned to another library. They must be returned in person to the front desk.
- All pass borrowers must sign an agreement stating that they understand the responsibilities of borrowing a museum pass from the Purchase Free Library.
